Before I Forget... A Memoir with Music

Quotes from Audience:

“It was wonderful. I got to forgive my brother all over again.”

“It is an experience... it isn’t a show... it isn’t anything I have ever been through before... things were funny, sad... I just sat there and felt it all. I trusted you. I believed you. You are so truthful. It made it possible for me to go with you and at the same time dig deep into my own feelings.”

“It was so funny. I laughed so hard.”

“I would like to say it reminds of my mother, but it doesn’t. But let me tell you about my mother...”

“You are so smart. Smart about people...about life.”

“You have a great voice. I could listen to you sing forever.”

“I wasn’t at all offended about what you said about the family. I didn’t see any ghosts shaking their fingers at you.” (Relative of Sally-Jane)

“Awesome.”

“I want to thank you. Thank you for reminding me that my own journey of life is good and rich and something to be grateful for.”

“It was warm, funny, sad, and real. So intensely felt I could do without my therapist for at least a month.”
